Nestled among the Almond groves this Finca is located in a Southerly position with all day sun and open views. The Finca and Casita are both separated and private. The Finca has two floors with original terracotta tiles and wood beams but also has a contemporary feel. On the ground floor there is a spacious living and dining room with wood burning stove which is very cosy through the winter months. A good size fully equipped kitchen with direct access to the dining room and the summer lounge which has sliding doors that open onto the lovely open terraces perfect for (See Website for more Information)
