Stairs lead to the first level and to the substantial landing, there are three generous double bedrooms one of which has its own personal terrace. There is a family shower room and additional built-in storage. The third level is currently being used as a spectacular games room housing a beautiful full-sized snooker table with designed lighting. This room has air conditioning and its own sunbathing terrace. This attractive village is located fifteen minutes from the coastline and is just three kilometres from the extremely comprehensive town of Pego with Alcoy and Cocentaina, the latter boasting the Moorish village of Forna (See Website for more Information)
